THE STORY OF THE JOHNSTONE HOUSE

Before becoming a legend, the Johnstone House was real. In 1935, Nancy and Archie Johnstone founded the Johnstone House in Tossa de Mar, considered the first hotel establishment on the Costa Brava.

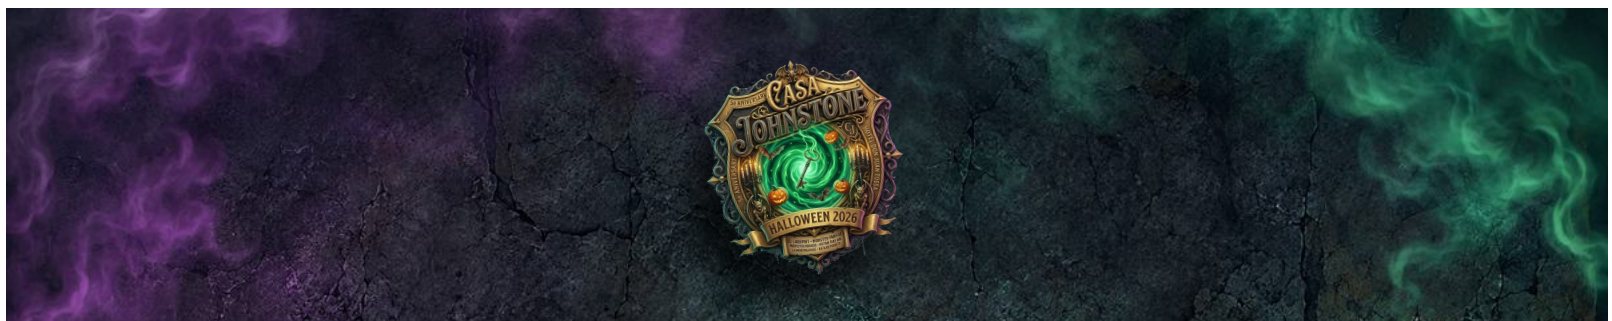

It soon became a meeting point for international writers, artists, and intellectuals who came to this small corner of the Mediterranean in search of inspiration.

Thus, Tossa de Mar became an important cultural reference of the time.

ALMOST A CENTURY LATER...

They say that the Johnstone House still holds memories of those early years. And every autumn, during Halloween, its doors reopen.

The question is... Are you brave enough to uncover the secrets of the Johnstone House?

We await you!
